Re: Master Plan Committee

Currently, the Planning Board is the only group working on the Master Plan update. However, this approach may not lead to the buy-in that we might need to implement the Plan. Perhaps a Master Plan committee should be established with members from several boards such as BOS, Capital, FinCom, Schools, Planning, etc to develop the Plan. This approach is used in several communities in order to have goals developed that everyone can endorse and implementation measures adopted. Let's discuss at the next meeting.
