MEMORANDUM

Re: Zoning Bylaws Update

A complete update to the Zoning Bylaws as been discussed several times over the years amongst Town staff, the Zoning Board and members of the public. Now that the Master Plan is being updated, the logical next step is to update the Zoning Bylaws. There will be several sections of the Zoning Bylaws that the Master Plan calls for an update to. In addition, there are several sections that have been identified by the Building Official and the ZBA that need updating. Please indicate at the next meeting if there are any sections that you would like to see updated.
