SEEKONK POLICE DEPARTMENT – RECRUITMENT NOTICE

The Seekonk, Massachusetts Police Department will conduct an entrance exam on March 31, 2018 to fill current and anticipated police officer and special officer vacancies, during the next two years. Seekonk is an active, professional, non-civil service department with an authorized strength of 39 FT officers and 15 PT officers working out of a modern facility with excellent equipment. SPD prides itself on having exceptional personnel at all levels of the organization.

The Town continues to experience steady growth and is located in the metro-Providence area with downtown Providence being ten minutes away. Seekonk is a community of approximately 13,500 residents spread over 18 square miles. It possesses both a rural and suburban character. The southern area boasts a vibrant business, retail and commercial district. I-195 traverses Seekonk and I-95 is less than five minutes away. Being a border community with the state of Rhode Island presents unique challenges for officers.

Salary range for patrolmen is approximately $54,724.80 to $59,051.20 annually. Patrol officers work a standard 4-2 schedule. Shifts are bid by seniority. Officers who received full Quinn benefits prior to its un-funding will continue to receive the full benefit. Officers hired after the un-funding who possess the required education receive educational incentive: Associate Degree - $5,000.00, Baccalaureate Degree - $10,000.00, and Master Degree - $12,500.00. The Town pays 75% health insurance premiums and 50% dental. Other benefits apply.

In addition to uniformed patrol in marked and unmarked cruisers, officers may be assigned to bicycle patrol depending upon specific needs. Other lateral career opportunities include but are not limited to police canine handler, criminal investigator, sexual assault investigator, court prosecutor, firearms licensing officer, school resource officer, firearms instructor, field training officer, honor guard member, CPR/First Aid instructor, regional narcotics enforcement/ anti-crime team member and a variety of positions (SWAT, Search & Rescue, Critical Incident Stress Team, Dive Team, and Investigations) available through the Southeastern Massachusetts Law Enforcement Council (SEMLEC).

All applicants must be US citizens, at least 21 year old, write and speak English fluently, possess good communication skills, have no felony convictions or prior conduct involving reckless, immature, irresponsible or questionable behavior, or incidents involving moral turpitude. Applicants must have an overall stable and suitable character as determined by a thorough background investigation. Military veterans must have an honorable discharge.

MPTC academy approved officers may submit an application directly to the Police Department without taking the examination.
