WOMEN & INFANTS

BREAST HEALTH

Wednesday, January 9, 2019 @ 11am

Women & Infants will be coming to Seekonk Human Services to present the importance of Breast Health. The best health care doesn't come from machinery or buildings. It comes from people. At the Breast Health Center, they combine advanced technology and the full spectrum of treatment options with the most crucial elements – specialized expertise and a compassion that guides us in all we do. Every day, it is our privilege to evaluate and, if necessary, treat, women promptly and efficiently. It's our golden rule, and why you should choose us for your breast health care. Lunch will be Venus de Milo Soup and dessert for $3. Activity is free of charge. Lunch must be paid for in advance.

HEALTHY FEET

Wednesday, January 16, 2019 @ 11am

Registered Nurse Katherine Mandolifi will be presenting on Healthy Feet. She works with Senior's and Diabetics to ensure that they can walk without pain or risk of infection from thickened, elongated toenails and painful calluses. Their health and their quality of life can be affected by these common pathologies. Treatment can include trimming and filing of toenails, reducing thick toenails and reducing calluses and corns. This presentation will go over the importance of foot care. Lunch will be meatball subs and dessert for $3. Activity is free of charge. Lunch must be paid for in advance.

TRIAD: FRAUD

Wednesday, January 23, 2019 @ 11am

CIRCUIT BREAKER

What is the Circuit Breaker Tax Credit?

The Circuit Breaker Tax Credit is a state income tax credit for eligible Massachusetts residents age 65 or older who paid rent or real estate taxes during the tax year. The credit is for senior homeowners and renters who meet income limits and other eligibility requirements. Homeowners may claim the credit if they paid more than 10% of their total income for real estate taxes, including water charges. Renter can count 25% of their rent as real estate tax payments. You must file a state income tax return to claim the Circuit Breaker Credit, whether or not you have to file other-wise. If your credit is greater than the amount of income taxes you owe, the state will give you a refund for the different. That maximum credit for tax year 2018 is $1,100.

Guided Meditation

Monday, January 7, 2019

Monday, February 4, 2019

11:00am—11:30am

This 30 minute group will offer participants the opportunity to take part in a guided meditation. Each month will have a different theme where the meditation will focus on topics like relaxation, happiness, healing, and more. No experience required just a willingness to give it a try. People who regularly use meditation can find benefits including improving their physical, mental and emotional health.

Let's Learn Together! Adding and Removing Apps
Wednesday, January 30, 2019 @2 PM

For seemingly everything you'd want to do on your smartphone or tablet, "there's an app for that." Come to this class to find out how you can remove unwanted apps from your device and explore the App store or Google Play store to find and install new apps. Please bring your Apple ID and password (iPad or iPhones) or Google ID and password (Android phone or tablet) for this session. Librarian Michelle Gario will lead this 90 minute class. Bring your own phone or tablet; please make sure your device is fully charged or bring your cable and charger. Contact the Senior Center to register.

TECH TIME

Wednesday, January 9, 2019 @ 2pm—4pm

Wednesday, February 13, 2019 @ 2pm—4pm

Students from MTTI in Seekonk will be coming to Seekonk Human Services on the second Wednesday of the month from 2pm to 4pm to help individuals out with their electronics. Bring your laptop, tablet, or cell phone and learn what they all have to offer or clean out the hard drive of your computer.

Seekonk Human Services would like to take the opportunity to thank all those who helped out during the holiday season, as well as Outback Steakhouse for cooking Thanksgiving meals to be delivered to the homebound and those who delivered meals on Thanksgiving Day. Personal Best Karate donated and delivered over 35 baskets to Seekonk residents. The anonymous family who cooks turkey and ham for Christmas meals and delivers them.

We would like to thank those who donated food, gifts, adopting families for Christmas and items needed for the holiday season. Thank you Mt. Carmel St. Vincent de Paul, Martin School, American Legion Seekonk, Wampanoag Rod & Gun Club, and East Commerce Solutions. Without your help we couldn't make this a successful holiday season!

MEN'S BREAKFAST
